

August 2019

Dear Singer:

We appreciate your interest in joining the Regina Philharmonic Chorus.

You don't have to have a big solo voice to join the Chorus. We are looking for are singers who have:

- some singing and choral experience.
- some ability to read music,
- a positive attitude, and
- willingness to learn their part before and during rehearsal.

For the audition, please prepare the following:

- Your part from the attached excerpt from Requiem by Paul Carr, and
- Your part from the attached excerpt from the Hallelujah chorus in Handel's Messiah.

I will accompany you at the audition, emphasizing your part. I'll also check your vocal range by having you sing up and down the scale.

You can bring a friend to the audition to sing with you if you want.

Please call or text me at 306 535-8565 to arrange your audition. It will be held at Knox-Metropolitan United Church at the corner of Lorne and Victoria.

I hope to hear from you soon.
